

As a hearing impaired person, I support any device such as CapTel that would allow me to communicate via telephone. I personally have not been able to experience the CapTel device, my daughter has and was most encouraged by it.